Call for admission to the Bachelor’s Degree in Comparative, European and International Legal Studies academic year 2017/18 – Summer session

The University of Trento, Faculty of Law, announces a public procedure for the admission of EU students to the first year of the Bachelor’s Degree in Comparative, European and International Legal Studies (academic year 2017-2018) based on candidates’ qualifications and interview. Access is restricted to 20 places. The admission test will take place on 24 August 2017 at 10.30 a.m. and will be held in English, in accordance with the official language of the course.

Admission requirements

Admission to the test is open to Italian citizens, EU-citizens, and non-EU citizens with a valid Italian residence permit (according to article 26 of Act No. 189/2002) holding:

- an Italian high school diploma, or
- a foreign high school diploma recognized as valid for the enrolment to a bachelor’s course in Italy.

Upon on-line registration to the admission test, candidates shall provide one of the following documents in order to certify their knowledge of English (at least B2 required in accordance with the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages), by uploading one of the following documents:

- international certificate e.g. IELTS, TOEFL, CAE, or similar at http://www.cla.unitn.it/en/780/certificates-do-you-have-a-certificate, or
- provisional Statement of Result, proving that the language exam has been successfully passed.

Certification is not required for candidates declaring that they:

- have been awarded a Diploma entirely taught in English;
- have English as their mother tongue;
- reside for a substantial period in a Country where English is an official language.
