Call for admission to the Bachelor’s Degree in Comparative, European and International Legal Studies

academic year 2023/24

The Faculty of Law of the University of Trento announces a public procedure for the admission of EU students to the first year of the Bachelor’s Degree in Comparative, European and International Legal Studies (academic year 2023/24) based on candidates’ selection via written test. Access is restricted to 75 places.

First Session: the admission test will take place on February 23rd, 2023 at 2 PM and it will be held in English, in accordance with the official language of the course.

Second Session: the admission test will take place on April 27th, 2023 at 2 PM and it will be held in English, in accordance with the official language of the course.

Admission requirements

Admission to the test is open to Italian citizens, EU citizens, and non-EU citizens with a valid Italian residence permit (according to article 26 of Act No. 189/2002), holding:

- an Italian high school diploma, or
- a foreign high school diploma recognized as valid for the enrolment to a bachelor’s course in Italy.

Candidates shall certify their knowledge of English.

At least a B2 level is required in accordance with the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages. Candidates shall certify their knowledge with:

- an international certificate e.g. IELTS, TOEFL, CAE or similar (see the full list of accepted certificates at https://www.cla.unitn.it/en/780/certificates-do-you-have-a-certificate);
- a provisional Statement of Result, proving that the language exam has been successfully passed.

Certification is not required for candidates declaring that they:
have been awarded a diploma entirely taught in English;
- are English native speakers;
- have resided for a considerable period in a Country where English is an official language.

The language requirement will be verified after the candidates are enrolled. In case the requirement is missing, students will have to recover it by the first exam session.

Online application

First Session: the online application procedure will be open until February 2nd, 2023, at noon at the following link https://webapps.unitn.it/ammissioni/en.

Second Session: the online application procedure will be open from March 1st until April 4th, 2023, at noon at the following link https://webapps.unitn.it/ammissioni/en.

In order to apply for the admission test, candidates must first create a UniTrento account by following the above link. They are expected to complete this operation at least 3 days before the above deadlines, in order to allow sufficient time for any possible technical support, which would be provided via email (please write to ammissioni@unitn.it).

All data must be carefully completed.

A registration fee of 30,00 € is required to finalize the registration process. See instructions on page http://infostudenti.unitn.it/en/tuition-fees-payments.

Admission test

The exam, of the duration of 60 minutes, consists of 60 multiple-choice questions divided into two areas:

a) 53 questions assessing general culture from an international perspective;

b) 7 questions assessing basic IT skills.

Both the first and the second admission test will take place on-site, under the condition that the future health-security indications allow it. All information is available on https://infostudenti.unitn.it/en/application-and-enrolment/application-enrolment-bachelors-and-combined-degrees
Candidates are expected to arrive to the room on time and to show an identity document, alongside with a valid Italian residence permit if they are non-EU citizens. Candidates will receive the details and the invitation a few days before the test.

Candidates in need of special assistance are invited to declare any disabilities in the online application (according to Law 104/1992 amended by Law 17/1999), and send an email to inclusione.studente@unitn.it. For any information see http://www.unitn.it/en/servizi/64895/inclusion-service.
