

Call for admission to the Bachelor's Degree in Comparative, European and International Legal Studies academic year 2018/19 – Summer session

The University of Trento, Faculty of Law, announces a public procedure for the admission of EU students to the first year of the Bachelor's Degree in Comparative, European and International Legal Studies (academic year 2018-2019) based on candidates' selection via written test. Access is restricted to 20 places.

The admission test will take place on 23 August 2017 at 10.30 a.m. and will be held in English, in accordance with the official language of the course.

Admission requirements

Admission to the test is open to Italian citizens, EU citizens, and non-EU citizens with a valid Italian residence permit (according to article 26 of Act No. 189/2002), holding:

- an Italian high school diploma, or
- a foreign high school diploma recognized as valid for the enrolment to a bachelor's course in Italy.

Candidates shall certify their knowledge of English.

At least a B2 level is required in accordance with the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages. Candidates shall certify their knowledge with:

- an international certificate e.g. IELTS, TOEFL, CAE or similar (<https://www.cla.unitn.it/en/780/certificates-do-you-have-a-certificate>);
- a provisional Statement of Result, proving that the language exam has been successfully passed.

Certification is not required for candidates declaring that they:

- have been awarded a diploma entirely taught in English;
- have English as their mother tongue;
- reside for a substantial period in a Country where English is an official language.

The language requirement will be verified once the candidates are enrolled. In case the requirement is missing, students will have to recover it by the first exam session.
